

GITMO-Prison explained

by

Др. Ульрих Христианович

The Guantanamo Naval Base

The Guantanamo Naval Base, abbreviated for pronunciation as GITMO, is located on a piece of land leased by Cuba on Guantanamo Bay in eastern Cuba. On this property, the American government under President Trump built a military prison for child sex offenders and for serious criminals of adjacent prohibited industries, as well as the competent military courts. Since this site is located outside the United States, the judgments of the High Military Courts cannot be continued. Each court case is finally decided by a High Military Court under the direction of a General or an Admiral after months of deliberations. The photos were taken probably by David Zublick.
